

This Summer School is targeted to health, social, child protection structures, law enforcement agencies, researchers and students, amongst other professionals from governmental or non-governmental entities, to a maximum of 30 national/international participants.

Through a Gender and Human Rights multidisciplinary and international approach, the major goal of this Summer School is the deepening and updating of knowledge on the phenomenon of Trafficking in Human Beings (THB) and the intervention carried out in its different dimensions: raising awareness and prevention, investigation and judicial processes, protection and assistance of the victims.

Trafficking in Human Beings: a multidisciplinary approach

18 September - Framework of the phenomenon

10:00h Reception

10:15h Group Session (APF)

- Participants presentation and expectations
- Trafficking in Human Beings (THB): what are we talking about? Construction of a definition

11:30h Break

12:00h Morning Lecture

Dr. Myria Vassiliadou, EU Anti-Trafficking Coordinator: European Commission
Video message

13:00h Lunch pause

14:00h Afternoon Lecture

Dr. Manuel Albano: National Rapporteur on Trafficking in Human Beings
- National Framework of the phenomenon: Guidelines to help the identification of (presumed) victims and cooperation between actors in all its stages, the 3rd National Plan to Prevent and Combat Trafficking in Human Beings (2014-2017), National Network for Assistance and Protection to THB victims (RAPVT)

15:30h Debate

High Sponsorship:

16:00h Pause

19 September - The Criminal Investigation in THB

10:00h Morning Lecture I

Especialista Lara Alegria Ribeiro: EUROPOL
- Cooperation mechanisms at an international level

11:30h Break

12:00h Morning Lecture II

Serviço de Estrangeiros e Fronteiras *
- The role of SEF in a national phenomenon

13:00h Lunch pause

14:00h Afternoon Session

Inspetor-Chefe Sebastião Sousa: Polícia Judiciária do Porto
- Identification and knowledge of the phenomenon: profiles, routes, research techniques, methodologies and cooperation mechanisms
- Case studies

15:30h Debate

16:00h Pause

20 September - The National Referral Mechanism: Flagging, identifying and (re)integrating/voluntary/assisted return: a network intervention model

10:00h Morning Lecture I

Dra. Rita Penedo: Observatório para o Tráfico de Seres Humanos
- Experience and knowledge : reflection about the national evolution

11:30h Break

12:00h Morning Lecture II

Dra. Rosa Rocha: Regional Public Prosecutor/advisory: Prosecution Service *
- The role of justice on THB

13:00h Lunch pause

14:00h Afternoon Session

Dra. Rita Moreira: APF
- Good Practices – APF's five Specialized Multidisciplinary Regional Teams for the Assistance of THB Victims' (North, Centre, Lisbon, Alentejo and Algarve)

15:30h Debate

16:00h Pause

21 September - The Victims' Assistance Process

10:00h Morning Lecture I

Dra. Marta Pereira/ Dra. Rita Tavares Fonseca: APF's Shelter and Protection Centre
- Assistance in the context of the Shelter and Protection Centers
- Case studies

11:30h Break

12:00h Morning Lecture II

Dr. Luís Carrasquinho: IOM
- The voluntary return of victims of THB

13:00h Lunch pause

14:00h Afternoon Session

Dr. Vincenzo Castelli: On the Road*
- The experience of On the Road within the intervention on Trafficking on Human Beings

15:30h Debate

16:00h Pause

High Sponsorship:

22 September - Awareness raising, preventing and training

10:00h Morning Lecture I

Dr. Nuno Gradim: CIG Norte

- The importance of specialized training of key actors in THB intervention

11:30h Break

12:00h Campaigns presentation and discussion

APF

- Why? Where? To Whom?

13:00h Lunch pause

14:00h Afternoon small groups work Session

APF

- Create an information/prevention campaign

15:30h Debate

16:00h End of work

*To be confirmed

High Sponsorship:

